OUR LOCAL PRODUCE

Good afternoon and a very warm welcome to HB’s Restaurant at The American Express Community Stadium

We are very proud to call Sussex our home, the county gives access to an incredible range of sustainable produce right on our doorstep.

We use local suppliers for the food we prepare, ranging from bakeries, butchers and smoker’s, some of which are mentioned below.

HB’s is named in tribute to Harry Bloom, a former vice chairman of the club, the late grandfather of Brighton & Hove Albion chairman Tony Bloom and father of director Ray Bloom.

An astute fundraiser on behalf of the club, he was also the architect of the club’s weekly lottery scheme, which in the late 1970s was earning the club revenue of £1m per annum.

He sadly died on the team coach, travelling to an old First Division match at Stoke City on 19th October 1980.

Albion’s manager of the day, Alun Mullery later said of him, “Harry was a marvellous man, who came up the hard way and learned to fight for himself.

“He started his career by buying second-hand cars in Scotland for £50, driving them back to his home and selling them on his driveway for £65 the following day.

“By the time I became manager at Brighton he was a very influential man around the town. He and I got on tremendously well and he acted as a buffer between the chairman and me.

“He was like a father to me and Mike also treated him with great respect, every morning without fail the three of us sat in my office to sip coffee and discuss the football club and its future. Harry was a great character and a good friend.”
